

Speaking Without Using Words

Published in Myanmar Summer 2013

Photos and Text by Rev. Jill K. H Geoffrion, Ph.D.

www.jillgeoffrion.com www.fhlglobal.org

While in Myanmar women have shared their histories, dreams, faith, concerns, and hopes with me. Some women have wanted me to listen with only my eyes and heart, hearing messages too painful or private to speak out loud. Women's voices, whether audible or silent, are precious—to those whose care leads them to listen, and to God who never ceases to listen to our words and our unspoken thoughts and feelings.

Listen to each woman or girl as you contemplate these photos. Each person is saying something that you need to hear.

“...for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.” Song of Songs 14:b

What are you hearing?

Is there a response that you long to voice? If so, find a way to communicate it to someone today.